

Emerging Scholars Program

(Participation in This Session is by Invitation Only)

Sunday, May 11, 2014, 7:00-11:00 A.M. Venue: A601

The Program

The Production and Operations Management Society is committed to fostering the development of young professionals pursuing academic careers in the field of OM, and has thus commissioned this special session of the conference. The program's goal is to provide junior OM professionals with career-building advice in developing excellence in their personal programs of teaching, research, and service in Operations Management. The program will consist of a set of guided discussions on topics relevant to academic career building in the field of Operations Management. The discussions will cover a broad range of topics such as (but not limited to): excelling in the classroom, new methodologies for research and teaching, book writing, charting and managing a winning research stream, choosing publication outlets, dealing with lazy editors, dealing with impertinent reviewers, doing research in non-PhD granting universities, funded research, professional service – getting involved with what and when, service opportunities in the POMS, consulting, juggling your activities – doing it all, setting priorities, etc.
